

Embroiderers' Guild

January 2021

Newsletter

We were all inspired by our two sessions in January with Kay Dennis. Kay encouraged both beginners and those with more experience. Each demonstration session, was followed up with printable, detailed instructions. We are now inspired and aim to finish our own mushroom pictures. Frances changed her mushroom for a flax flower, so that she can use her stump work within her City and Guilds course.

When Kay showed us her Stump Work picture of Peter Rabbit, it brought a sigh of admiration from everyone. I have had many messages saying how much they enjoyed Kay's sessions. Kay's preparations and demonstrations, enabled her classes to transfer smoothly to Zoom.

Please email photos of your finished work so that they can be included in our website.

A message from Rosalie

"Unfortunately I have to say no to everything. I don't have zoom, email and a clever phone which tells me everything all around the world. I shall be 96 on January 5th but my family insist I reach 100. I don't want to leave the Guild and when the world gets over all these germs and disputes, I shall turn up to meetings at Patcham, fingers crossed, and hope to be useful.

My very best wishes for 2021.

Rosalie."

Saturday 6th February.

Our next workshop, 'Diamond Applique' and run by Dianne, begins at 10.30a.m. on Saturday 6th February. I will attach Dianne's instructions to an email along with this newsletter. We will be encouraged to produce a picture, using a variety of stitches, in order to create a 'Dancing Threads' 3D design, similar to Dianne's. The session will take the form of a stitch and natter session, but if you could start the base it would be useful.

Please, please log in on time, via our website, brightonembroidery.org

If you join a bit early you will be able to chat to other members.

To join a Zoom session it will be necessary to enter a password. Please email begwebmaster@btinternet.com for it to be sent to you. The password will remain the same for several Zoom sessions.

I won't be sending out emails with the zoom link, this method using the website is easier and saves me time and others trying to find the correct email the day before or that morning! The password will remain the same until June. Please keep the password in a safe place.

Please email, and let me know, whether a not you will be joining us on the 6th. We need know how many will attend each session. Some Tunbridge Wells Guild members may be joining us.
