Mushrooms - simpler version

JAN 2nd & 16th – 10.30 am (1½ - 2 hours)

KAY DENNIS - Workshop - morning

Mushroom and Blackberries Stumpwork Embroidery

Kay is a recognised expert in the area of stumpwork – raised pictures made with delicate stitches over padded shapes

History 17th C Raised Embroidery, already popular on the continent for about 200 years, by mostly male professionals, was taken up in Britain by teenagers and had a late 19th C revival, when the Victorians began to call it stumpwork

FEB 6th – 10.30am-12pm

DIANNE BUNYAN – Workshop - morning

Diamond appliqué

Dianne is a member of BEG and taught machine knitting before turning to embroidery

'The sample is called Dancing Threads, which was what I was aiming for. The central patch is padded out with cord to give a slight 3D effect.' It also showcases lots of lovely hand embroidery stitches

You will make your own version in your own colours

Poppies and Cornflowers

APR 10th – 10.30am-12pm (late because of Easter)

FRANCES LINDSAY-HILLS – Workshop - morning

Make your own Jigsaw tessellation

Frances is a BEG member & currently doing the City & Guilds patchwork course with Sara Cook

'This is a simple process that can give very effective results. It is ideal for using up all those 5" squares lurking in your stash. There are lots of ways of joining the pieces including, Bondaweb, paper piecing and machining with invisible thread.'

A clamshell like tessellation made by adapting a square based grid

Tessellation - an arrangement of shapes closely fitted together, in a repeated pattern without gaps or overlapping

Sara is a Brighton based C&G Patchwork tutor and expert on Korean textiles. She wrote her book in 2019

'Centuries old Korean wrapping cloths were used to wrap, cover and carry items in the home. During this workshop we will use coloured silk organza to make a translucent two layered contemporary Jogakbo (pieced) wall hanging using a sewing machine. You will learn how to make the narrow Korean kkekki (triple folded) seams that encloses all the raw edges. You will learn how to make traditional decorative Jakssi (a type of prairie point) to insert into the seams. This is a free piecing style workshop but I will also provide a pattern to give you some ideas'

Kit available £10 or use your own

6 different coloured pieces of Silk organza, approximately 25 x 35 cm

- Handout with descriptive diagrams for making the Kekki or French seam
- Pattern design sheet
