'Make an Exhibition of Yourself'

The 8th January meeting, on Zoom, was very successful, beginning with the journey Frances took to create her Quilt, this was part of her City and Guilds work. She was inspired by her visits to the area around Dieppe, France. The quilt had to be 1.5 metres square.

All the photos are now on the website, so you can revisit at your leisure. brightonembroidery.org
Look in the 'Gallery' section and you can see how talented the BEG members are.

During the meeting, members asked for information

1. Australian, Impressions Magazine, is available in this country from, Manor House Magazines. mike@manorhousemagazines.co.uk
2. Free weekly emails are signed up for at news@inspirationsstudios.com They arrive on a Friday. The emails are always interesting.
3. The felt '12 Days of Christmas', ornaments I made, were from, Corrinne Lapierre's book, '12 Days of Christmas Felt Decorations'. A good source of good quality wool felt, is from the Liberty Bell, shop in Chester. They have an on-line shop at liberty-bell.co.uk Their physical shop is amazing, an excellent selection of fabrics!

Parking at Patcham

You will now need a parking permit if you drive to and want to park at the Patcham Community Centre. You can buy your own for £5.00 or borrow one from the kitchen cupboard upstairs, at Patcham. If you do not display a Parking Ticket you will be fined! Please do not drive off with the borrowed parking ticket but return it to the cupboard. BEG will be responsible if you forget to return the Parking Ticket.

Brighton and Hove Arts Council

BHAC will be organising their annual exhibition at The Quaker Hall, in the Brighton Lanes. Judy will be organising our display board, if you wish to submit work for display, please contact her. judyalexander47@aol.com This is an excellent way to advertise BEG.

To submit textile pieces for the poster, contact.....

Subject: BHAC Annual Art Show 2022 - pictures for poster and flyer

Dear Art Groups

As in previous years we are looking for two pieces of artwork we can use on the poster and flyer for our annual Art Show:
to be held at the Friends' Meeting House in Brighton from 27th to 30th April.

We would be most grateful if you could ask your members to send any pictures to me by Monday 7th February

This is to ensure that we have them in time for an advert in the next issue of Arts Diary (March-May).

The pictures we use will be selected by our Executive Committee, and I know from previous years that this won't be easy!

If you need more information please don't hesitate to contact me.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Best wishes, Caroline Earle, Secretary BHAC, earleybird67@yahoo.co.uk
